The world at your wing tips
WARDAIR CANADA LTD
Canada's Largest Charter Airline

The world at your wing tips

WARDAIR

Welcome to Wardair's World! From its adventuresome beginnings 35 years ago in the Northwest Territories to offering low-cost holiday packages today, Wardair's flight crews have logged multi-millions of miles. Today, it's Canada's largest charter airline.

Due to the foresight of Maxwell W. Ward, founder and president, Wardair was the first airline to introduce Boeing jets to charter air travel in Canada. Others were soon to follow.

Thousands of globe-trotting Canadians have already discovered that Wardair also stands for first class V.I.P. treatment all the way! On Wardair you're not just another passenger, but a most welcome guest. From take-off to touch-down your slightest whim will be catered to by attentive hostesses. You'll dine on superb gourmet food and sip complimentary refreshments. The perfect take-off to your holiday adventure.

Whether this is your year to see Europe, tour the exotic Hawaiian Islands or fiesta in Mexico, you'll have 'The World At Your Wing Tips' when you fly Wardair.

To plot the progress on your present trip, or your next, consult the world map in this brochure.
